It takes a man about a year to learn how to talk and then it takes him the rest of his life to learn not to talk.

The Federal Commission on Industrial Relations will continue its hearing in the Colorado coal dispute until all the important witnesses have been heard.

Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Evening Journal, became ill suddenly at Atlanta, Ga., and his physician was summoned from New York.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

BIG SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS EXPECTED—HUNDREDS OF TOWNS COVERED.

From the headquarters at Frankfort for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals for the state of Kentucky comes word that the seals are on sale in nearly all the principal places in the state and are rapidly being sent to other places. Women's clubs are co-operating, following the suggestion of Mrs. Lafon Baker of Harrodsburg, chairman of the Health Committee of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. School teachers in many places, recognizing the educational value of the sale of seals, are talking about them to school children and assisting in this manner in the sale in their various towns.

Wherever tuberculosis societies or visiting nurses are at work, 80 per cent of the proceeds are retained in the community where the seals are sold, for the support of that work.

In Frankfort, where a visiting nurse is partly supported in this manner, practically all of the merchants have agreed to buy seals and place them on out-going packages during certain days just before Christmas. Nearly $100 worth of seals were sold in this manner.

In Louisville the sale is being conducted by a committee, of which Mrs. Buschmeyer, wife of Mayor Buschmeyer, is chairman. The proceeds of the Louisville sale will be used in an effort to re-open Hazelwood Sanatorium, which was for a long time the only institution in Kentucky open to any consumptive in the state.

WHAT PEOPLE GO TO THE THEATER FOR.

In the January Woman's Home Companion appears a thoroughly interesting interview with Cyril Maude, the famous English actor. In the course of the interview Mr. Maude tells in part as follows what he thinks is the essential of a good and popular play:

"A great many young playwrights believe that a play can not be clever unless it is unpleasant. The unpleasant play appeals only to a few people who pose as clever, as unusual, as, let us say, advanced. Others maintain that a successful play must provide a thrill or shock, one moment of terrific pressure."

"I do not believe that a single great moment, a mighty thrill founded on some grotesque or unnatural twist of the human mind can make a play. The successful play for the masses holds the interest and amuses the audience from curtain to curtain."

"People go to the theater to be entertained and amused, not to await one thrilling moment, one hideous shock, lifted from the dissecting room, the morgue, the police court, an asylum for the criminal insane."

PERT AND PERTINENT.

(Cynthiana Democrat.)

Those young men who can not afford gifts this year had better do their Christmas shopping early.

A Paris firm is advertising a mahogany sandwich basket. Who puts the hog in the mahogany sandwich?

The Columbia State says the only time a doctor gets a nickel out of some families is when one of the children swallows it.

The only tobacco rejected at the Barley House Monday was a crop lot of 25 pounds, which the owner bundled up in a piece of oilcloth and took back home, declaring he would smoke it himself rather than accept the price offered.

When the editor of the Somerset Journal called the office boy's attention to the fact that a law was passed last year abolishing roller towels the boy replied that it did not affect the Journal towel because it was up there before the law was passed.

BAN ON INDIGESTION REMEDIES.

Washington.—The Bureau of Chemistry has placed the ban against stated remedies for indigestion. Many products claiming to contain certain ferments promoting digestion were found to contain little, if any, of the agents. It was found, too, that the products deteriorate with time, and the pure food experts suggest that each lot be dated.

128 CARLOADS OF WAR HORSES.

There have been 128 carloads of horses to pass through here during the previous two weeks, each car containing on an average 30 horses, all bound for the same destination, Europe.

These 3,920 horses were probably purchased for $125 each and will cost the European armies at least $400 apiece. Somebody's going to make a speck.

The Lord shall utter His voice before His army; for His camp is very great; for He is strong that executeth His word; for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?—Joel II, 11.

SOME MERRY CHRISTMAS JINGLES.

(Commercial Tribune.)

Besides high boots with embroidered tops, white hose will still be a fad. That prompts a rhymster in the New York Mail to say:

"The white hose came to town last spring,
With all its stockings showy;
Each hobble skirt that gave a fling,
Revealed these stockings snowy.
And when the stockings all are hung,
From Oshkosh to the Isthmus,
It needs no real prophetic tongue
To promise a white Christmas."

The same correspondent, who is keeping me posted with matters about the glories of California and the prospects of the great exposition, sends a few lines which were Thanksgiving lines, but are even better at Christmas time: Who prates of poverty? The cranks! The men who toil would shrink! And so today let's offer thanks, But, ah! we keep our cash. With stocks and bonds and lands and banks,

We're prosperous, for sure;
And that is why we offer thanks,
But overlook the poor.

Life brings its certain ills;
And so today let's offer thanks,
While others pay the bills.
The wine of joy o'erflows its tanks;
Therein our cares we dash
And so today we give our thanks,
But, ah! we keep our cash.

With stocks and bonds and lands and banks,
We're prosperous, for sure;
And that is why we offer thanks,
But overlook the poor.

TOBACCO

on our opening sale did not sell up to the expectation of a number of sellers, due in a measure to the extremely soft condition of a large percentage of the Tobacco on sale.

In some instances, however, we had expressions of satisfaction, and we confidently believe the difference between the "Growers' Ideas" and the present market will adjust itself as soon as Tobacco begins to appear in good merchantable order. We anticipate a free movement of Tobacco before the holidays and we want your business. We are ready to serve you at all times to the limit of our ability.
